

THICK SKIN 14

teeling irish whiskey, ginger, lime, angostura bitters, soda

Sharing its name with a song from the east coast queercore punk band Limp Wrist, this one is sharp, intense, and refreshing, like the band's rejection of commercial queer culture and rainbow capitalism.

TRUE TRANS SOUL REBEL -14

old overholdt rye, cinnamon, honey, chocolate bitters

Inspired by the track and album of the same name, it's deceptively easy to drink for a spirit-forward cocktail. When she's not fronting her band, Against Mel, singer Laura Jean Grace is an outspoken transgender activist.

INDUSTRY BABY 14

el silencio mezcal, sotol, ginger, honey, lime

This riff on Sam Ross's modern classic, the Penicillin, takes its name from the iconic Lil Nas X track. No matter where you come from, this one is for the champions.

FAITH 14

hendrick's gin, giffard creme de peche, cocchi americano dry vermouth, angostura bitters

George Michael's classic queer anthem lends its name to this riff on the classic martini variation, the Vesper. Stiff but approachable, this one will take you back to the glory days.

ATTENTION 14

tito's vodka, giffard creme de peche, cinnamon, lemon

Fun and approachable like its Todrick Hall namesake, this one is sure to evoke memories of fresh fruit pies, though probably not like grandma made.

BICYCLE RACE 14

woodford reserve bourbon, honey, lemon, chocolate bitters

Refreshing, rich, and inspired by arguably the gayest song Freddie Mercury wrote, this one reminds us that the classics never die. Just don't go racing bicycles afterwards.

BAD ROMANCE 14

el dorado 12yr aged rum, amaro cia'ciaro, marie brizard cacao blanc, orange bitters

Like a leather studded kiss, it's bittersweet and breaks the boundaries of your basic old fashioned, much like Gaga did to pop music. Familiar, yet complex enough to make you want it bad.
