

THICK SKIN 14

Sharing its name with a song from the east coast queercore punk band Limp Wrist, this one is sharp, intense, and refreshing, like the band's rejection of commercial queer culture and rainbow capitalism.

Teeling Irish Whiskey, ginger, lime, Angostura bitters, soda

TRUE TRANS SOUL REBEL 14

Inspired by the track and album of the same name, it's deceptively easy to drink for a spirit-forward cocktail. When she's not fronting her band, Against Me!, singer Laura Jean Grace is an outspoken transgender activist.

Rye whiskey, honey, cinnamon, chocolate bitters

INDUSTRY BABY 14

This riff on Sam Ross's modern classic, the Penicillin, takes its name from the iconic Lil Nas X track. No matter where you come from, this one is for the champions.

Mezcal, ginger, honey, lime, Sotol

FAITH 14

George Michael's classic queer anthem lends its name to this riff on the classic martini variation, the Vesper. Stiff but approachable, this one will take you back to the glory days.

Hendrick's Gin, Cocchi Americano dry vermouth, Giffard Creme de Peche, Angostura bitters

ATTENTION 14

Fun and approachable like its Todrick Hall namesake, this sidecar variation is sure to evoke memories of fresh fruit pies, though probably not like grandma made.

Tito's Vodka, Giffard Creme de Peche, cinnamon, lemon

BAD ROMANCE 14

Like a leather-studded kiss, it's bittersweet and breaks the boundaries of your basic old-fashioned, much like Gaga did to pop music. Familiar, yet complex enough to make you want it bad.

El Dorado 12yr Aged Rum, Amaro Cia'Ciara, Marie Brizard Cacao Blanc, orange bitters

BICYCLE RACE 14

Refreshing, rich, and inspired by arguably the gayest song Freddie Mercury wrote, this one reminds us that the classics never die. Just don't go racing bicycles afterwards.

Woodford Reserve Bourbon, honey, lemon, chocolate bitters
